2. The construction of field fortifications near Fuchsberg (N 50/U 89) and Neumark, which was interrupted in December 1950, has been resumed. The spade work near Fuchsberg was camouflaged by nets. An observation tower and bunker were on a hill southwest of Fuchsberg.
3. An SNB detachment of two NCO's and 14 EM was stationed in the former customs house in Sruby (Heuhof-N 50/U 89) up to 14 February. The detachment was relieved by a detail from Vseruby at 4 p.m. on 13 and 14 February. The SNB men were armed with Soviet submachine guns. Patrols of two men were seen between 8:30 and 11 a.m., as well as between 2 and 4:30 p.m. The six customs police previously stationed in Sruby had returned to Hirssov (Hirschau-N 50/U 89), where they did patrol missions on lanes and highways.
